

The Wisconsin no call list is the greatest piece of gov't work to ever come along. Our nuisance phone calls have almost completely stopped. Do not enable the banking community their request to disband the no call list.